Case No: 4:16-CV-02233-JST

CLASS ACTION

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER*Proceedings and Information Governed.

1. This Order and any amendments or modifications hereto (“Protective Order”) shall govern any document, electronically stored information, or other thing furnished by any party, to any other party, and includes non-parties who receive a subpoena in connection with this action. The information protected includes, but is not limited to, answers to interrogatories, answers to requests for admission, responses to requests for production of documents, deposition transcripts and videotapes, deposition exhibits, and other writings or things produced, given or filed in this action that are designated by a party as “Confidential Information” or “Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys’ Eyes Only” in accordance with the terms of this Order, as well as to any copies, excerpts, abstracts, analyses, summaries, descriptions, or other forms of recorded information containing, reflecting, or disclosing such information.

Designation and Maintenance of Information.

2. For purposes of this Protective Order, (a) the “Confidential Information” designation shall mean that the document is comprised of trade secrets or commercial information which is not publicly known and is of technical or commercial advantage to its possessor, or other information required by law or agreement to be kept confidential; and (b) the “Highly Confidential Information – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” designation shall mean that the document is comprised of information that the producing party deems especially sensitive, which may include, but is not limited to, confidential research and development, financial, technical, marketing, or any other sensitive trade secret information. Confidential Information and Highly Confidential - Attorneys’ Eyes Only Information does not include, and this Protective Order shall not apply to, information that is already in the knowledge or possession of the party to whom disclosure is made unless that party is already bound by agreement not to disclose such information, or information that has been disclosed to the public or third persons in a manner making such information no longer confidential.

3. Documents and things produced during the course of this litigation within the scope of paragraph 2(a) above, may be designated by the producing party as containing Confidential Information by placing on each page and each thing a legend substantially as follows:

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Documents and things produced during the course of this litigation within the scope of paragraph 2(b) above may be designated by the producing party as containing Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only Information by placing on each page and each thing a legend substantially as follows:

HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION
ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY

A party may designate information disclosed at a deposition as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only Information by requesting the reporter to so designate the transcript or any portion thereof at the time of the deposition. If no such designation is made at the time of the deposition, any party shall have fourteen calendar days after the date of the deposition to designate, in writing to the other parties and to the court reporter, whether the transcript is to be designated as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only Information. If no such designation is made at the deposition or within such fourteen calendar day period (during which period, the transcript shall be treated as Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only Information, unless the disclosing party consents to less confidential treatment of the information), the entire deposition will be considered devoid of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only Information. Each party and the court reporter shall attach a copy of any final and timely written designation notice to the transcript and each copy thereof in its possession, custody or control, and the portions designated in such notice shall thereafter be treated in accordance with this Protective Order.

It is the responsibility of counsel for each party to maintain materials containing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only Information in a secure manner and appropriately identified so as to allow access to such information only to such persons and under such terms as is permitted under this Protective Order.

Inadvertent Failure to Designate.

4. The inadvertent failure to designate or withhold any information as confidential or privileged will not be deemed to waive a later claim as to its confidential or privileged nature, or to stop the producing party from designating such information as confidential at a later date in writing and with particularity. The information shall be treated by the receiving party as confidential from the time the receiving party is notified in writing of the change in the designation. Any party that inadvertently produces Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only Information without proper designation may request destruction of that Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only Information by notifying the recipient(s) and providing replacement material that is properly designated. The recipient(s) shall then destroy all copies of the inadvertently produced Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only Information and any documents, information or material derived from or based thereon.

Challenge to Designations.

5.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

5.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must

1 begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication
2 are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging 3 Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and 4 must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the 5 circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen
6 designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it 7 has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the Designating Party is 8 unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely manner.

9       5.3     Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court 10 intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under Civil 11 Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) within 21 days of the 12 initial notice of challenge or within 14 days of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer process
13 will not resolve their dispute, whichever is earlier. Each such motion must be accompanied by a 14 competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer
15 requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph. Failure by the Designating Party to make such a 16 motion including the required declaration within 21 days (or 14 days, if applicable) shall 17 automatically waive the confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the 18 Challenging Party may file a motion challenging a confidentiality designation at any time if there is 19 good cause for doing so, including a challenge to the designation of a deposition transcript or any 20 portions thereof. Any motion brought pursuant to this provision must be accompanied by a 21 competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer 22 requirements imposed by the preceding paragraph.

23       The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating 24 Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose 25 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to 26 sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived the confidentiality designation by failing to 27 file a motion to retain confidentiality as described above, all parties shall continue to afford the 28

1 material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's 2 designation until the court rules on the challenge.

3 Access to and Use of Protected Material

4         6.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use "Confidential Information" or 5 "Highly Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only Information" that is disclosed or produced by 6 another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, defending, or 7 attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories 8 of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been 9 terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 14 below entitled 10 Conclusion of Litigation.

11         Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in 12 a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

13         6.2 Disclosure of "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential – Attorneys' 14 Eyes Only Information" or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing 15 by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated 16 "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only Information" only 17 to:

18         (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as employees
19 of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information 20 for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that 21 is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

22         (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving 23 Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the 24 "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

25         (c) Experts or consultants of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably 26 necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be 27 Bound" (Exhibit A);

1 (d) the court and its personnel;

2 (e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and 3 Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have 4 signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

5 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably 6 necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), 7 unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed
8 deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately 9 bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this 10 Stipulated Protective Order.

11 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or 12 other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

13 7. If a Party would like to give access to Confidential or Highly Confidential
14 Information to any person listed in Paragraphs 6.2(c) or 6.2(f) who owns, works for, or consults 15 with a competitor of the Designating Party, or who is anticipated at the time of disclosure to 16 become an owner, employee, or consultant of a competitor of the Designating Party, the Party 17 seeking to provide such access must give written notice to the Designating Party of its intention to 18 make such disclosure. Such written notice must include the proposed recipient’s name, address, 19 and curriculum vitae, as well as a list of the proposed recipient’s ownership, employment, or 20 consulting relationships or anticipated relationships with competitors of the Designating Party.
21 Within ten (10) business days from the service of such written notice, the Designating party may 22 object to such disclosure by service of a written notice of objection on the Party seeking to make 23 the disclosure, stating the reasons for the objection. No disclosure of Confidential or Highly 24 Confidential Information to any such person may occur prior to the expiration of ten (10) business 25 days from the date of service of the written notice of intent to disclose unless consent is granted 26 earlier by the Designating Party. If the Designating Party gives notice of objection to disclosure, 27 the Party objecting to the disclosure may file a motion seeking to prohibit the disclosure, and that 28

1 Party shall have the burden of justifying the objection. The motion must be made within ten (10) 2 business days from the date that a notice of objection to disclosure is given. Failure to file the 3 motion constitutes consent to disclosure. The Party seeking to make the disclosure may not make 4 such disclosure while the motion is pending.

5 8. Counsel shall be responsible for the adherence by third-party vendors to the terms
6 and conditions of this Protective Order. Counsel may fulfill this obligation by obtaining a signed 7 Exhibit A.

8 9. Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only 9 Information may be disclosed to a person not already allowed access to such information under 10 this Protective Order, if:

11 (a) the information was previously received or authored by the person or was authored or 12 received by a director, officer, employee or agent of the company for which the person is 13 testifying as a Rule 30(b)(6) designee;

14 (b) the designating party is the person or is a party for whom the person is a director, 15 officer, employee, consultant or agent; or

16 (c) counsel for the party designating the material agrees that the material may be disclosed 17 to the person. In the event of disclosure under this paragraph, only the reporter, the person, his or 18 her counsel, the judge and persons to whom disclosure may be made, and who are bound by the 19 Protective Order, may be present during the disclosure or discussion of Confidential Information 20 or Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only Information. Disclosure of material pursuant to 21 this paragraph shall not constitute a waiver of the confidential status of the material so disclosed.

22 10. This Order applies to pretrial discovery. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to 23 prevent the Parties from introducing any Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - 24 Attorneys' Eyes Only Information into evidence at the trial of this action, or from using any 25 information contained in material designated Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - 26 Attorneys' Eyes Only Information at the trial of this action, subject to any pretrial order issued by 27 this Court.

Non-Party Information.

11. The existence of this Protective Order shall be disclosed to any person producing documents, tangible things or testimony in this action who may reasonably be expected to desire confidential treatment for such documents, tangible things or testimony. Any such person may designate documents, tangible things or testimony confidential pursuant to this Protective Order.

Filing Documents With the Court.

12. Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(d) is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(e) unless otherwise instructed by the court.

No Prejudice.

13. Producing or receiving confidential information, or otherwise complying with the terms of this Protective Order, shall not (a) operate as an admission by any party that any particular Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only Information contains or reflects trade secrets or any other type of confidential or proprietary information; (b) prejudice the rights of a party to object to the production of information or material that the party does not consider to be within the scope of discovery; (c) prejudice the rights of a party to seek a determination by the Court that particular materials be produced; (d) prejudice the rights of a party to apply to the Court for further protective orders; or (e) prevent the parties from agreeing in writing to alter or waive the provisions or protections provided for herein with respect to any

1 particular information or material.

2 Conclusion of Litigation.

3       14. Within sixty calendar days after final judgment in this action, including the 4 exhaustion of all appeals, or within sixty calendar days after dismissal pursuant to a settlement 5 agreement, each party or other person subject to the terms of this Protective Order shall be under 6 an obligation to destroy or return to the producing party all materials and documents containing 7 Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only Information, and to 8 certify to the producing party such destruction or return. Outside counsel may retain one archival 9 copy of pleadings, correspondence, work product, discovery responses, expert reports and Court 10 exhibits containing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only 11 Information provided, however, that any Confidential Information or Highly Confidential - 12 Attorneys' Eyes Only Information contained in such documents retained by Outside counsel shall 13 remain subject to the protections of this Order. Outside counsel need not purge their email, 14 document management systems or back-up tapes, provided, however, that any Confidential 15 Information or Highly Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only Information contained in such 16 documents retained by outside counsel shall remain subject to the protections of this Order.

17 Other Proceedings.

18       15. By entering this Order and limiting the disclosure of information in this case, the 19 Court does not intend to preclude another court from finding that information may be relevant and 20 subject to disclosure in another case. Any person or parties subject to this Protective Order that 21 may be subject to a motion to disclose another party's information designated Confidential 22 pursuant to this Protective Order, shall promptly notify that party of the motion so that it may 23 have an opportunity to appear and be heard on whether that information should be disclosed.

24 Remedies.

25       16. It is Ordered by the Court that this Protective Order will be enforced by the 26 sanctions set forth in Rule 37(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and such other sanctions 27 as may be available to the Court, including the power to hold parties or other violators of this 28

1 Protective Order in contempt. All other remedies available to any person(s) injured by a violation
2 of this Protective Order are fully reserved.

3 17. Any party may petition the Court for good cause shown in the event such party
4 desires relief from a term or condition of this Order.
